COLDBROOK HATCHERY OPERATING

HALF MILLION TROUT FRY AT NEW STATE PROJECT IN NORTH FORK

Coldbrook camp, in the north fork of the San Gabriel river, was the rallying point last Saturday of the Izaak Walton league, San Gabriel chapter, when about one hundred of the members, and members of the Azusa chamber of commerce, gathered to inspect the new fish hatchery, now in operation.

Securing the site from the government, the state has established a hatchery about 300 yards below Coldbrook camp, where 500,000 trout are already on their way to become game fish. Under the direction of George Clarkson, southern member of the state fish and game commission, the hatchery was rushed to completion in time to house the spring hatch of trout eggs, brought from the north.

The new hatchery is built of unfinished lumber, with a water flume diverting the flow from a portion of Coldbrook. The water is passed through the big tanks built of planking, and each tank holds about 50,000 of the small fry. On Saturday the first hatching was twelve days old, the fish being about two inches long. When they are about five to six inches they will be released in pools specially made throughout the various forks of the canyon and in other streams in the south. One man, C. E. Gunderson, is in charge.

The hatchery, and other activity on the part of the state is looked upon by the San Gabriel valley fishermen as a turning point in the sport in connection with all these streams. In future years, when the San Gabriel dam is operating it is planned to make a fisherman's paradise of the San Gabriel canyon.

The visitors were entertained at Coldbrook camp, and a picnic lunch was served under the auspices of the Azusa chamber of commerce. The trip gave an opportunity to learn at first hand the amount of work that is being done in the canyon. The high line road which rises above the height of the dam to be built at the forks is being pushed forward with steam shovels, and will pass around Camp Rincon far above that noted resort. The road to Coldbrook is to be improved, and the county is preparing plans to make a continuous roadway all the way from Azusa to Mount Islip and Pine Flats, where the new county park is to be established.

It is planned at present to follow the canyon of the north fork at a high level, but at an easy grade, and to go up Bochata canyon, as the easiest grade to Mount Islip. County gangs are at work at Pine Flats clearing brush and widening trails.

The federal government and the county combined are building a telephone line from Camp Rincon to Pine Flats and to other lookout stations in that area. The lines are attached to four-by-six sawn lumber fifteen feet long, and these are being hauled to place on the backs of burros. Superintendent F. E. Wadsworth, who is in charge of work at Big Pines Recreation camp near the San Bernardino county line, and C. J. Baker, are superintending the work at Pine Flats, and said that when the phones are cut in there will be 140 miles of lines in the San Gabriel canyon area. The system is linked with the Home Telephone Company of Covina.

The road from Azusa as far as the damsite at the forks is a two per cent compensated grade, a highway as good as any in the valley, and wide enough for easy passage at any point. From the damsite to Camp Rincon and Coldbrook the road is narrow, and follows the lines of the streambed, but is not especially dangerous or hard to negotiate. All cars entering the canyon must be provided with a shovel and an ax, as this is now the law. Camping places are plentiful,and the rangers ask only that the rules concerning fire are strictly adhered to. Permits to build campfires are issued at the mouth of the canyon.

Covina Sweepstakes Cups Are Displayed

In the history of the orange industry, Covina never before brought home such an array of silver cups, ribbons and citations as are on display this week in the window of the Covina Music store on Citrus avenue. The display has been placed there by the Golden Orange Groves Inc., the Covina house of the Mutual Orange Distributors that swept everything before it at the Valencia Orthing before it in the Valencia orange show this year.

Grand sweepstakes and growers' sweepstakes cups are the outstanding features of the display, with smaller cups indicating the various prizes in box and plate displays.

Community Prize Award Given to Covina Woman

The exhibit, filling the allotted four square feet, portrayed the orange industry. The Sierra Madre range, featuring Mt. Baldy, formed a background for the orange grove. A palm drive led from the highway to a model of the Damerel-Allison packing house, and a box of choice Sunkist oranges, Grand Canyon brand, donated by the house, was proof of the contents of the miniature truck and freight cars that stood at the door.

The banquet, "A Night in Spain," at El Cortez hotel Saturday night, with five hundred in attendance, proved the San Diego clubs to be charming hostesses. Tours and boat rides were part of the entertainment provided.

Sixteen members of the Covina club attended the convention. On Friday morning, Mrs. O. C. Willoughby, Miss Marion Mountain and Mrs. Gladys Johnson went down, carrying the exhibit, which had been planned and prepared by Miss Virgie Wilson and Mrs. Johnson. Mrs. E. J. Cleugh, Mrs. Nellie Foto of Baldwin Park and Mrs. Fannie Brown of Montrose took the water route, Friday evening. Mrs. Frank Johnson, Miss Kregs, Miss Gerhard, Mrs. Hattie Wine, Mrs. Bertha Clark, Mrs. Florence Onions, Miss Coffman and Miss Hilborn left early Saturday morning and remained over for a trip to Tia Juana Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Blanche Fleenor and Mrs. Mary R. Forbes drove down Saturday afternoon.

Grocery, Meat and Fruit Store Opens Monday

Dredges' Covina Valley Market, Hal Cook's fruit and vegetable stand, and the Humpty Dumpty grocery will open Monday morning in the building recently vacated by the Hupmobile agency at the corner of Citrus avenue and Orange streets.

The building has been entirely remodeled inside, making or it a modern provision store. Dredges' market and Hal Cook's stand are being moved today from their positions in one of the Safeway stores, and the new location will be made into one of the best provision stores in the valley, the proprietors announce.

On Saturday, a week from tomorrow, the proprietors will stage a formal opening, with a program, and a list of gifts to the public. A full announcement of Saturday's offerings is to be made during the coming week.

Officials Act to Prevent Fires in Forest Area

The division of motor vehicles has instructed all California traffic officers immediately to begin enforcing the law prohibiting the throwing of burning cigars, cigarettes and matches from moving vehicles.

Aroused by recent heavy losses from fire in grain fields and forests, Frank G. Snook, chief of the division, issued a bulletin to the officers instructing them to arrest every person caught throwing burning matter from cars.

The officers are likewise instructed to cooperate with state and federal forest rangers in the apprehension of similar offenders in forested areas.

The annual junior-senior tug-of-war and fracas was the center of atraction at the high school Tuesday afternoon. The event took place on the athletic field and ended in a free-for-all hose fight. Neither side admitted defeat in the thorough wetting that each participant received.

MADAME YAW TO SING IN COVINA PARK

NOTED CONCERT SINGER TO BROADCAST CONCERT ON JULY 1ST

Ellen Beach Yaw, nationaly-known concert singer, whose home is in the Covina valley, will sing in Covina park Sunday, July first, the concert beginning at 4 o'clock.

All citizens of the valley are invited to attend, and seating arrangements and program are being planned under the direction of the chamber of commerce, Covina Lions club, the Covina Rotary, the American Legion, and all organizations of women of the community.

The concert will precede the first union services of the Covina churches, which takes place in the park at 5:30 o'clock. A program for the church services will be announced later, and will include choirs and instrumental music.

Madame Yaw's Covina concert will be broadcast indirectly from the park bandstand to all of Southern California. The noted singer will use the microphone installed in connection with the public speaking apparatus, and all radio owners will be afforded the opportunity of listening in. Madame Yaw recently broadcast a concert from San Francisco which aroused unusual interest throughout the Pacific coast.

Because of the very large crowd that is expected to hear Madame Yaw, the committee suggests that everyone arrive before four o'clock, if possible, in order to avoid the noise of automobiles after she begins singing.

Covina Student County Winner of W.C.T.U. Prize

Announcement was made last Friday at a meeting of the local W. C. T. U. held at the Morter home, that the effective poster made by Colin Allen, a sophomore student at high school, had won the first place in the county contest after winning a local prize. Scores of entries were made from all over the county, the local boy winning out. The prize, ten dollars cash, will be awarded at the coming county convention, and the poster goes on into the state contest. If successful there it will be entered in the national competition.

An interesting feature of the last meeting of the local white ribboners was the giving of cash prizes to two little people from Miss Austin's room in the grammar school, whose Health books ranked first in the twenty-eight submitted. Billie Fowles and Dick Kennedy were the fortunate pupils who were present to read their attractive books.

With several other unions throughout the country, the local W. C. T. U. is putting on an intensive educational campaign this summer to counteract the propaganda being sent out by the "wets" that prohibition and law enforcement are failures.

The next meeting of the Covina union will be the annual picnic at the Coman home on the second Friday in July. In August the local women will join with Baldwin Park union in an all-day picnic and program at the Elston ranch.

California Delegation Pivotal in Convention

Throughout the San Gabriel valley, citizens yesterday expressed the utmost satisfaction in the phenomenal battle at Kansas City headed by the group of twenty-nine delegates from California that resulted in Herbert Hoover's rise to the outstanding figure of that great political classic.

Delegations that were split, with only scattering members in favor of Hoover, were swung into line through day and night contacts with the California delegation. Advocates of farm relief measures from the middle west who arrived anti-Hoover, were swung over by the arguments of the California men and women. And everyone who entered the headquarters of the California delegation was immediately presented with a beaker of ice-cold orange juice as a token of California's goodwill. That Covina shared in this entertainment is shown by one telephoto picture of these headquarters, with a well known Covina brand of valencias prominent on the labels of the piled up boxes.

As shown by the platform adopted, the Republican party is on record as "bone dry," thus putting the challenge straight up to the Democratic convention at Houston next Week, when it is predicted that Al Smith, a wet, is to be nominated.

LIONS CLUB ALL SET FOR FOURTH OF JULY PROGRAM

A partial list of events for the Fourth of July program in Covina under the auspices of the Lions club has been announced this week, and will be followed by a full program issued the coming week, it was announced by the Lions committee yesterday.

The main event of the morning will be the push ball contest, which created much excitement last year. Teams will be announced later. Other morning events will be life-saving contest between Boy Scout teams; greased pole climb; greased pig chase; 50-yard dash for boys under 12; same for girls; 100-yard dash open to all; football passing contest; girls' ball throw at target; men and women's golf contest; horse shoe tournament.

In the afternoon there will be matched tennis tournaments and a number of plunge events. The water sports will include a 50-yard dash for boys; same for girls; dive for distance; fancy diving; gold-diggers' treasure hunt. Besides these several novelty contests are being arranged. There will be an excellent program on the bandstand in the afternoon. Chairman Bob Estep has secured a number of West Coast theater artists in vaudeville, to begin at 2:30. The gift of the Lions club to the city will be presented by Rev. George Steed.

The gift consists of new playground epuipment, ten in all, seven of which will be installed in the city park prior to the fourth of July celebration. The other three are to be presented to the Merwin school, its playground being deficient in such devices. The seven pieces for the park consist of one rock-a-bye swing, a device for amusement and exercise for one to ten children at a time; one parazontal bar; one flying revolving swing; two revolving circle waves; a teeter, especially designed for small children; one rowing swing; one giant slide.

Class Sermon Draws Throng Sunday Night

The high school auditorium, both lower floor and balcony, was filled Sunday night with the friends of the school who gathered to hear the annual class sermon, delivered by Rev. M. L. Kain, rector of Holy Trinity Episcopal church. The one hundred and two members of the graduating class entered as the school orchestra played the processional march. The glee clubs led in the singing of two hymns, "Fight the Good Fight" and "Soldiers of Christ Arise," and sang the anthem, "Unfold, Ye Portals."

Rev. Kain chose as his text the well-known words of Paul, in Phil. 3:13-14: "But one thing I do, forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things which are before, I press on toward the goal unto the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus," drawing a remarkable word picture of the Olympic runner and his desire to attain the goal. He left with the class the thought that the hero of the future would not be the master of physical or mental feats, but he who demonstrated his heroism through service to God and his fellowmen.

The scripture was read by Rev. Jacob M. Boaz, pastor of the Brethren church, the invocation given and benediction pronounced, following the singing of "America," by Rev. Russell Thrapp of the Christian church.

CHARTER OAK.

Thirty-one pupils graduated from the Charter Oak grammar school Tuesday evening. As usual, the program was given in the open air and attracted many from Charter Oak and Covina.

Two plays were presented by the graduating class. "Fun in a Chinese Laundry" was a comedy with nineteen characters, and provided much laughter. "The Legacy," a boarding school story, was exceptionally well given. The plays were directed by Miss Clara Thompson, principal.

There were songs by the grades, dance by the fifth and sixth grade girls and music by Willie and Bobby Martin.

A short address and the presentation of diplomas was made by the Rev. Arthur Wake, minister of the Covina Presbyterian church. Those assisting in the program were Mrs. W. L. COVINA GRAMMAR SCHOOL

The graduating exercises of the Covina grammar school were held on Thursday evening, the 14th, in the auditorium. The address was given by Mr. John M. Acheson, director of boys' work in the Pasadena Presbyterian church, and was full of inspiration to the members of the class.

Charles Jerome handed us two old copies of Los Angeles newspapers which were extremely interesting. One was a copy of the Los Angeles Star of January 24, 1875, and the other a Los Angeles Times of December 4, 1884.

The Times proved to be of the greater interest as it was an anniversary number commemorating the beginning of the fourth year of the paper. It boasted a population of 28,000 for the city, and advertised lots in the Child's tract, bounded by Main and Tenth street, at $600, with $25 down payment.

The only advertisement which looked familiar was the Kerckhoff-Cuzner Mill and Lumber Co., which is still one of the leading business firms of Southern California.

MASON MENEFEE TAKES TUMBLE IN BIPLANE

Mason Menefee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Menefee, had a narrow escape from death last Sunday afternoon when the motor of a biplane driven by Bob Marriam refused to work and the machine headed for the San Gabriel river bed. The accident occurred between the Santa Fe railroad bridge and the Foothill boulevard, in sight of hundreds of motorists. Many drivers, fearing the plane would alight on the boulevard, left their machines and ran for their lives, causing a traffic jam and blocking the road for more than two hours.

When the landing gear of the plane hit the sand and rocks, the rebound threw it on its top, pinning the two men underneath. They were extricated unharmed, however. Both wings of the plane were broken.

Menefee, who is a member of this year's graduating class at Covina high school, was able to attend the baccalaureate sermon in the evening.

Francia White Scores Triumph at Ellis Club

What proved to be a veritable triumph for a Covina girl took place Wednesday evening at the Philharmonic auditorium, when Miss Francia White, daughter of Mrs. Phoebe Ara White, was given an ovation as soprano soloist at the concert of the Ellis club, one of the leading choral organizations of Los Angeles.

Miss White sang a group of three numbers, each one being received with applause. Covina friends friends who heard her declared that she was in splendid voice. Her teacher, Louis Graveure, occupied a box, and said afterwards that Miss White revealed fine stage presence and exceptional artistry. She was the recipient of many baskets of flowers.

MRS. MARY ANDRESEN DIES AT DAUGHTER'S HOME

The death of Mrs. Mary Andresen occurred Wednesday morning, June 13th, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Roy R. Platt, at 218 West Center street. Funeral services were conducted at two o'clock Thursday, at the Church of the Brethren, Glendora. Interment was in Oakdale, beside the husband who died twelve years ago.

Mary Wyne was born in Virginia, December 21, 1846. She became the wife of S. D. G. Andresen on March 19, 1886. Mr. and Mrs. Andresen established their home in Oregon, coming to California in 1896, moving to Glendora in 1911. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Roy R. Platt and Mrs. Charles R. Fesler, and several grandchildren. Another daughter died eighteen years ago, at the age of twenty-three yars.

Mrs. Andresen was a devoted Christian mother. No effort was too great on behalf of her family or her church. Uniting with the Brethren church in early girlhood, her life has been noted for kindly acts. During the past ten years, she has pieced over one hundred comfort tops, in many cases finishing the entire comfort. Others were turned over to the Ladies Aid of her church for completion.

The past eleven months of Mrs. Andresen's life was spent with her daughter, Mrs. Platt. Although confined to her bed the greater part of the time, her patience and consideration for others was typical of her character.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY DRAWS LARGE HOUSE

"Captain Applejohn," the senior play, attracted a large audience Wednesday evening. The play, an Arabian Night's adventure, was full of thrills from beginning to end. The hero, Captain Applejohn, was well taken by Fred Wheeler. Hershel Daugherty represented Borolsky, a typical underworld character. The two feminine leads were taken by Doris Colville as Ann Valeska and Thais Fredrickson as Poppy, the ward of the captain, both characters calling for strong dramatic work.

John Richard and Aileen Humphrey, as Mr. and Mrs. Pengard, came in on the mystery part, Dick Webb as Lush, the butler, and Myrtle Jones as Mrs. Whatcombe, the fussy old lady, sustained the humorous vein. Rowland Mackey acted the part of Jason, the high powered salesman, and George Anderson was Dennett, a crook. Margery Friedrich was the maid. There were twelve pirates who figured largely in the second act.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. Ada Bruell entertained at the city park Tuesday afternoon complimentary to her daughter Betty's birthday. Assisting the hostess was her sister, Mrs. George Haynes. The afternoon was spent by the little guests in playing games. The feature of the party was the handsome birthday cake, with trimmings of pink and white, and the dainty pink and white favors. Ice cream, candy and cake were the refreshments.

COVINA CITIZENS RETURN FROM TRIP TO HONOLULU

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Crawford, Lawrence Crawford and Miss Catherine Maurer, who composed a party that returned recently from a trip to the Hawaiian Islands, report seeing several former Covina residents while there. They were met at the wharf at Honolulu by Mrs. Lucile Matthews White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Matthews. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. White at their residence. Mr. White is in the employ of the Trent Trust company. Through the courtesy of George Blanchard, assistant manager of the Transportation company, they were given every possible attention while visiting points of interest on the island. Mr. Blanchard is a nephew of Ed. Blanchard and Mrs. Dora Shearer. At Hilo, on the Island of Honolulu, they enjoyed a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Degree, the latter being a sister of Mrs. Henry Brandon and Mrs. Harold Houser. They were three weeks making the trip, six days en route each way and the balance of the time divided between the two islands, Honolulu and Oahu. The city of Honolulu is located on the latter island.

In future issues Mr. Crawford will publish a story of his trip.

Junior Lions Attend Palo Alto Convention

The second Junior Lions convention, held at Palo Alto last week, proved a wonderful success. Of the thirty members in the local club twenty-six were present, giving Covina first place for convention attendance, for which they were presented with a beautiful floral loving cup. The convention program presented a formidable array of speakers, chief of which was the inspirational address of the Hon. Julian C. Hyer, Lions international director of Fort Worth, Texas.

The Covina club has come back primed to carry on a larger year of service and organization of new clubs throughout Southern California.

Griffiths Return From Eastern Trip

Completing a journey of 7,000 miles by automobile, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Griffiths of Badillo street arrived in Covina yesterday from Cedar City, Utah, driving 500 miles on the last leg of the journey, passing through Utah, Arizona, Nevada and California. The last part of the drive is considered to be close to the record for continuous driving.

The Griffiths returned in a Marmon automobile purchased in the east. They have made a leisurely journey through New York and other states of the east, visiting Washington, D. C., and spending a delightful reunion with their daughter and husband, Lieutenant and Mrs. Wilbur Nye, in North Carolina.

ENTERTAINS AT SERIES OF BRIDGE PARTIES

Mrs. Bernard Allen entertained with a series of bridge parties this week. Eleven tables played Wednesday, the guests being from Covina. On Thursday seven tables of out-of-town guests, including several from Pasadena, enjoyed the hospitality of the hostess. Assisting were Mrs. Ralph White, Mrs. J. K. Ingalls, and Mrs. E. L. Varney. The decorations were gladioli and baskets of summer flowers.

The mothers of the graduates of the West Covina school entertained the eleven members of the class and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gentry, Mrs. Ruby Coulson and Miss Frances Maxson at dinner Thursday evening in the club house. The evening was spent with a short program, games and contests.

Mrs. Elmer King has returned from Banning, where she spent the week with her father, J. J. Hough.

A "blind" beggar sat at the entrance of a subway kiosk with a tin cup in his hand. A passerby, slightly under the influence of alcohol, took out his pocket flask and started to pour a drink into the man's cup.

The beggar opened his eyes suddenly, saw the flask and yelled: "Nix, nix! None of that stuff. Do you t'ink I wanta go blind?"

SEED-TIME AND HARVEST

Unless seeds are planted there can be no harvest. Yet many look forward to a Harvest of Happiness in the years to come, who today are sowing no seeds—planting no dollars in the bank.

You cannot reap where you do not sow. That is both gospel and good sense.

EYESTRAIN

The serious effects of eyestrain are felt mainly outside the eyes, and the pains and ill-health which result are generally attributed to all causes but the right one.

Perfect sight is not always indicative of perfect eyes, for the ones who often see best suffer the worst forms of eye troubles.

Have your eyes examined—and wear glasses—if they are needed!

Congratulations

Scholarship is but the foundation on which to build success. We congratulate the graduates on the good foundation represented by their diplomas.

As they launch out into the business or professional world may the years come to them laden with golden opportunities; and may they be prepared to make the most of each opportunity.

There is no preparation as substantial as a growing bank account, for while it is building a ready-cash fund it is also developing thrift, character, and a standing in banking circles that is often a greater asset than the money banked.

Efficiency Club Picnics at Redondo

The Southern Counties Gas Company employes of the Pomona district held their annual Efficiency club picnic and celebration at Prado Beach on Sunday. The outing was featured by games and sport events of all sorts, with races for the men, women and children and various prizes were given the winners.

A huge barbecue luncheon was served to more than two hundred employes, their families and friends. The dinner was served from a portable rolling field kitchen and had been cooked with gas, the gas being supplied by a small storage tank erected for the purpose.

Walter L. Geldert, commercial agent in the local territory, is president of the club organization. This club is composed of all the employes in the Pomona district, both men and women. They have regular monthly meetings and social events and in the summer a big picnic closes the year. Geldert was in charge of the picnic, with W. T. Haynes and Matt Speer in charge of refreshments.

District Manager C. G. Spencer and Mrs. Spencer were the guests of honor. Other guests included several executives from the Los Angeles general offices.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY HOLDS ALL-DAY MEETING

The Women's Missionary Society of the Christian church had as guests at its all-day meeting on Thursday of last week Mrs. Pitzer of Pomona, past-secretary of the district, and Mrs. Titsworth of San Dimas, both of whom spoke at the afternoon program. Miss Violette Adams sang "Faith of Our Mothers."

The noon luncheon was largely attended by the members and their guests. This was the closing meeting for the year ending June 30th, and saw the fulfillment of the $1000 pledged for the "living link" on the African field. Evelyn Utter Pearson.

New officers elected were: president, Mrs. D. F. Stafford; vice-president, Mrs. Torrence; secretary, Mrs. P. E. Stanton; treasurer, Mrs. O. D. Brouse.

Senior Hi-Tris Close Season at Coman Home

The last meeting of a most successful year for the girls of the senior Hi-Tris was held at the Coman home Tuesday, with a porch picnic supper and the final annual reports. The two new officers elected for the next school year are Helen Chamberlain, president, Lenore Randack, treasurer. It is the custom to delay the election of the vice-president and secretary until fall when the girls from the junior group come into older membership.

The visit last week of one of the Y. W. C. A. secretaries, Miss Burgess, was a great treat for the girls and her fascinating talk on the "Adventure of Being a Girl Reserve" was both interesting and instructive. The hope of a county Y. W. secretary another year, who will do for the girls and young women what Mr. MacDonald has done for the boys of the valley, has added greatly to the interest of the local girls for the past two weeks.

In all probability two of the girls will go to the big Girl Reserve conference at Asilomar, which will be held the first week in July, when five hundred organized high school girls, mostly juniors and seniors, gather under expert leadership for study, discussion, play and comradeship.

Begining three years ago with a membership of eighteen, the Hi-Tri, or Girl Reserve work in Covina has grown steadily in membership and interest, the senior group this year having numbered sixty-nine, while the junior division has thirty-five.

PARTY ATTENDS JUNIOR LIONS CONVENTION

Mrs. S. S. Aschenbrenner and a party of eight young people motored to Palo Alto last week to attend the Junior Lions convention in that city. Mrs. Aschenbrenner also visited Mr. and Mrs. A. McCall Smith in San Jose. Those in the party were the Misses Gladys Aschenbrenner, Margaret Schute, Margaret McClain and Ima Steinpfad, and Messrs. Walter Grimmesey, Harold Chamberlain, Allen McClain, and Hurst Gentry.

The graduates of the Lark Ellen grammar school have been enjoying a program of parties the last two weeks. Edgar Coffman and Robert Simpson were each host to the class on separate occasions and on Friday evening the seventh grade and Mr. Bailey entertained them at the school. Miss Alice Brouse was hostess on Monday evening.

Wide Range of Films Shown at Covina Theater

"The Wild West Show," name of the Hoot Gibson offering showing tomorrow night at Covina theater, is a film in which the famous westerner has a splendid chance to show his peerless horsemanship. He rides like a whirlwind in one of the most noted horse races ever seen on the screen.

On Sunday and Monday night, Greta Garbo comes in an M. G. M. vehicle, "The Divine Woman." This is the role of a French actress who lives and moves in an atmosphere of luxury. This is an adaptation of the stage production, "Starlight," in which Doris Keane was starred.

On Tuesday and Wednesday nights Charlie Murray is to be seen in such predicaments as toying with wild lions, falling in love with Venus, mixing with the U. S. marines and riding an ancient Ford in ancient Greece. The title is "Vamping Venus." Wednesday is designated as "Family Night."

Thursday and Friday of next week the offering is "The Yellow Lily," Billy Dove's latest vehicle. This is adapted from the stage play of the same name, with its scenes laid mostly in Hungary.

NEW SERVICE STATION ON NORTH CITRUS AVENUE

E. Shewell, owner of a young avocado grove located a mile north of Covina on Citrus avenue, has erected a service station and lunch room on the north line of the property, just opposite Cienega. The architecture of the building, with a tower, is attractive and unique. Easy access from the street has been made. Mr. Shewell is considering the building of a tennis court for the use of his customers. Mr. Shewell bought this property a couple of years ago. He has built a stucco residence on the south end of the ranch.

Early Days in Covina

TEN YEARS AGO

Twenty-seven pupils of the grammar school received diplomas at the commencement exercises last night.

One of the enjoyable events of the commencement season to the class of the high school was the party given by Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Kaiser at their home on Glendora avenue Wednesday evening. They entertained the class and the class teacher, Miss M. E. Griswold, in honor of their niece, Miss Margaret Kaiser.

Thomas J. Saunders, son of Constable and Mrs. J. J. Saunders, has been ordered to Berkeley by the government, where he will take a course of twelve weeks in aviation.

The Cardinal is out—the annual of the high school. The book was arranged by Donald Warner, editor-in-chief; Freedom Olsen and Ruth Laws as associate editors, assisted by a staff of writers. Edson Letchworth was business manager.

Thursday evening of next week a reception will be given by the school mothers of Covina in honor of Miss Effie Lemonds, retiring vice-principal of the high school, and Miss Eva D. Edwards, for years the principal of the grammar school, who expects to be called soon to France in Y. W. C. A. work. The reception will be held at the Woman's clubhouse.

Following closely upon the announcement of her engagement came the marriage of Miss Anna Sprotte to Dr. Clinton G. Stadfield. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Will Sprotte, Miss Katherine Maurer, and Mr. Ed Sprotte.

High school students raise $1200 for the national Y. M. C. A. fund, according to Dr. B. S. Gowan, principal.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Mentally unbalanced and constantly grieving over the death of her husband, Mrs. Cutting Clark, for years a resident of Covina, committed suicide Wednesday morning by hanging herself in a shed at the rear of her home in Los Angeles.

Wednesday Covina was visited by a severe thunderstorm, pronounced by old-timers to be the most severe ever known in this section. The residence of E. Winkler, on East Puente street, was struck, the electric force splitting the pillars of the veranda, burning off the telephone wires and shattering the electric light bulbs in the house.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Raymond and their son, Frank, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Gail, of El Toro.

More than eighty ladies were present at the flower mission social held at the home of Mrs. J. R. Elliott on last Wednesday afternoon.

W. M. Griswold, assistant cashier of the Azusa Valley bank, will remove to Long Beach to reside on July 1st, having purchased an interest in the Long Beach Lumber company.

J. W. Keefer expects his brother, W. R. Keefer, and family of Lincoln, Neb., to arrive today. They come to make their residence among us.

E. W. Garrison, representing the Southern California Citrus Union in Covina, has purchased the residence lot from I. D. Houser on East Badillo street.

A party of fishermen, consisting of F. M. Douglas, E. H. Lahee, A. P. Kerckhoff, and D. B. Levis drove ten miles up the canyon Wednesday night to angle for the finny tribe.

FIRE DEPARTMENT CALLED

The fire department was called out Monday morning to put out a grass fire on a vacant lot on North Fourth street. The fire started from the burning of some trash on the lot.

Valley Baseball Team Plays at Chino Sunday

The newly organized Baldwin Park merchants' team is to meet the Chino aggreation in a baseball game at Chino Sunday afternoon. The game is played at the east end of Clark street in that town, it is announced.

Every Sunday following the Chino game the team will play on the Baldwin Park grounds. The team has every indication of being a winning one, and is well supported in the valley.

SURPRISE GIVEN TO REV. AND MRS. J. M. BOAZ

Last Monday evening was the occasion of a very pleasant surprise given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Church of the Brethren to their pastor and wife. Rev. and Mrs. Boaz and family were entertained at dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Overholtzer, and after dinner were driven to the church. On their arrival they were greeted in the annex to the church by a capacity-filled membership and friends with a cordial reception. A carefully arranged program was featured in which musical numbers were given by Mr. Henry Hepner, Mr. Carr Deitz, Miss Margaret Bashore, several trios sung by Mrs. Ruby Finch, Mrs. Marian Finch, and Miss Hilda Brubaker, with Mrs. Belle Eikenberry at the piano. Mrs. Maud Runyon gave several appropriate readings. After the program, Mrs. S. W. Funk, president of the society, and in charge of the program for the evening, presented Mrs. J. M. Boaz with a beautiful wool-filled quilt with the name of each family embroidered in blue-crossed stitch. The presentation of the gift was followed by a few remarks of the pastor and his wife expressing their surprise, and appreciation of the good fellowship enjoyed among the members of the church during their two years of labor here, and the happiness it means to them as they go to their new field of labor at Oakland. Ice cream and cake was served.

METHODIST CHURCH LADIES WIL HOLD FASHION SHOW

Next Thursday, June 21st, the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal church will convene at 2:30 in the social room of the church in regular monthly session.

After the business and election of officers the ladies will put on a "fashion show," twenty young women acting as models. The costumes, some of them being thirty-five and forty years old, will be furnished by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Goodwill Industries, Los Angeles, with Mrs. Elaine Anderson Dudley of that city in charge.

The program will be amusing and of much interest and while there will be no admission fee there will be an opportunity given the ladies to contribute anything from twenty-five cents up. A general invitation is extended to the ladies of Covina to come and enjoy the afternoon together.

ATTEND GRADUATION

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Warner and daughter, Dorothy, and Mr. W. P. Nye attended the graduation of Donald Warner from the law department of the University of California last Saturday. The exercises were held in the Coliseum, the graduates from all the departments numbering sixteen hundred.

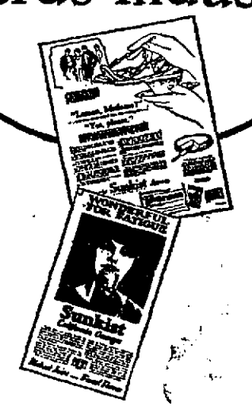
Why

one cooperative sales agency can best serve the Citrus Industry



INEXPERIENCED orange and lemon growers are sometimes told that 2 selling organizations competing with each other in the markets of the world could do a better job than if the entire crop were handled through the California Fruit Growers Exchange.

Let us assume that a second association has been organized and that it has signed up the remaining one-quarter of the crop which the Exchange does not now handle.

Then imagine that you yourself have been sent East to sell fruit for this smaller cooperative. A carload of oranges is scheduled to arrive in your territory within a day or two.

What will be your story when you approach a prospective buyer?

Would it be "BETTER FRUIT"?

No. Buyers well know that Exchange fruit is uniformly dependable. Years of experience have made them skeptical of unknown brands.

Would it be that you have "A BRAND OF FRUIT THAT WOMEN RECOGNIZE"?

No. Buyers will tell you that "Sunkist" is on every housewife's lips. That Sunkist is a byword of the nation.

Would you offer "SERVICE THAT THE EXCHANGE DOES NOT OFFER"?

No. Buyers know that the Exchange, by handling a larger volume of the total crop is better able to supply them fruit throughout the year.

They know that Exchange dealer service men make 75,000 calls on retailers each year, many in their territory.

They know that the Exchange is better able to supply them with reliable market data because it has first hand information on the bulk of the crop covering all districts where the fruit is raised.

WOULD YOU OFFER TO SELL FOR LESS?

No. Because to prove that two cooperatives are necessary you must get more money than the Exchange. Financial return is the only gauge by which your theory can be proved.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

You might blame your California office. Perhaps they should have shipped the car to another point. You might wire suggesting the car be diverted to a big population center . . . an auction market. But your California office would say, "No, our brand has no standing in the large consuming centers." You would be asked to "submit best offer." This you would do and the answer would probably come back, "SELL."

JOIN THE EXCHANGE

Competition in production, in improving the quality of fruit, packing and handling is an excellent practice. The Exchange employs it constantly.

But competition in selling means less profit for all.

Cooperation in selling, on the other hand, means an evenly distributed crop. It means the securing of the highest prevailing prices in the different markets of America, and abroad. It means a decreased cost of production through cooperative buying in larger quantities. It means a greater advertising campaign to further increase the average per capita consumption of citrus fruits. It means lower selling cost through larger volume. It means more profit to every grower.

Talk to the manager of the nearest Exchange Association or District Exchange. Or write for further information to California Fruit Growers Exchange, Box 530, Station "C", Los Angeles, California.

Old Songs Feature Eightieth Birthday

A birthday party occurred Monday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Warner, celebrating the eightieth birthday of the former's mother, Mrs. Lavina Warner. The guests were thirty-five members of the Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church, who came bringing with them many bouquets of flowers. Mrs. T. E. Foster led in singing of old-time songs, "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," and "Seeing Nellie Home" being among the favorites.

A glance at the livingroom, after the guests had gone home, disclosed a wash out, and in the middle of it a two-cylinder runabout. There were no passengers aboard, however, as the runabout and all obstructions were cut out of paper by the deft fingers of the guests, who designed many miniature garments. Mrs. E. F. Edwards received the prize for the greatest accuracy, it being proved that her miniature handkerchief was exactly on the square.

Individual birthday cakes and tea were served by the hostess.

Commencement Program Held at Boys' School

The commencement exercises of the California Preparatory School for Boys occurred on Sunday and Monday of the present week. On Sunday afternoon the baccalaureate sermon was delivered by Rev. James A. Geissinger, pastor of the Hollister Methodist Episcopal church of Pasadena. The service was well attended and was in every way an appropriate and interesting one.

On Monday afternoon at 4:30 the class day exercises were held. It consisted largely of speeches and "take offs" by different members of the class. The "Ramblings'," by Norman Brice Shoemaker were extremely funny and well received. A trial conducted by students, William Sauer, and John MacGinniss, called the "Trial of a Testator," was also a very clever performance. Music for this meeting was furnished by the school orchestra under Supervisor Riedel.

The main occasion was that of the graduating exercises on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The salutatory, under the title of "Courage and Character for Twentieth Century Work," was presented by Guy Lawrence Cochran. Two addresses followed, "The World the Graduating Class Must Face," John Robert Malone, the class vice-president, and the other, "The Class Grumbler," by Thomas Harrison Crawford. A tenor solo by student Harry Dravo Parkin was next rendered. An address, "Beware of the Man Who Promises Too Much," by Glenn Allan Poole, and the valedictory, "Wounds Made by Words are Hard to Heal," by Henry Bland Pownall, class president. A violin solo was rendered by Supervisor Riedel.

Under the awarding of the prizes, the character cup of the school, an annual event, was presented by Mr. J. H. Henry, the donor, and went to a senior member, Guy Lawrence Cochran, of Los Angeles. Other prizes: first oratorical, Leroy C. Bishop, of Puente; second, Watson S. Rose, Los Angeles; athletic cups to sportsmen in the upper and also the lower school were won by Mark Stuart Collins and Alfred Miles.

The scholarship prizes were won by Henry Bland Pownall, of Canton, Ohio, and Edward Limberg of St. Louis, Mo. The honor of the year of being the head boy in the senior class was unanimously awarded to Henry Bland Pownall.

Hodges; Jeanette Hapgood and Bettie Patterson; Wilbur Tully, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tully; Graham Patterson of Sierra Madre; Guinevere Dancer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Dancer; Kathryn Sailors, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sailors; Betty Van Ginkel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Van Ginkel; Margaret Maurer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. NIGHT-BLOOMING CEREUS ATTRACTS BY BLOSSOMS

A night-blooming cereus at the residence of Joseph Hosang, zajero for the Azusa Irrigating company, attracted many for several evenings this week, when the plant, a specie of cactus, had a series of blossoms. The plant is located near the pump house on Cypress avenue.

C. W. Tucker, photographer, made some rare negatives of the blooms, a cluster of thirteen appearing Sunday evening. Mr. Tucker had two blooms in his studio the first of the week.

LOCAL YOUTH IS WINNER IN CONTEST

Norman Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Harris of Vineland avenue, won first prize in the county wide essay contest for school pupils, carried on under the direction of the Riverside chamber of commerce. He attended the Beaumont high school last year, and wrote the essay there.

For the first prize, he received $20 cash. Prizes were given by Frank Miller, owner of the Mission inn at Riverside. The title of the winning essay was "A Plan for Tree Planting and Care of Trees in My Home Town."
